Mr. Walter O. Ediger, Administrator

Eighteen thousand impressions!!!! Probably more! Something like 18,000 impressions were required to bring this annual to you. The press that printed this book has an impression roller. Its purpose is obvious. If the annual was printed in multiples of two pages, only half as many impressions were needed. As impressive as the matter of press impressions is, the Annual Staff who has been completely absorbed in another kind of impression.

This book is designed to give you an impression of NC 1967-68. This impression has to do with real school life, real activities, real classes, but most of all with real people. There is a concern that you receive the impression that for nine months the people pictured, formally or informally, have had the opportunity to learn, to share, to grow—all of this in a setting where Christ is honored and is counted as the key-stone of the educational foundation. What this means will depend on the impression that has been made on the individual student. This impression has been made by the various influences of school life but perhaps just as much by the Holy Spirit's working in response to your prayers.

—Walter O. Ediger

As administrator of NC, Mr. Ediger has many diverse responsibilities. His teaching duties consist of speech class and one semester of Bible III. He sponsors the senior class and is in charge of faculty meetings as well as frequent chapels and special school activities. Much of his time is spent talking with not only students and staff members but also visitors to our campus.

Blueprints may come in many different sizes and shapes, and for many different purposes. To the average person the blueprint may not mean much, but in the hands of the master builder the blueprint is very valuable because it gives him every detail for construction of the building. God's blueprint is unlike any we have ever seen, and no doubt if we were to see it we would be thoroughly confused. Yet, in His hands, the blueprint gives Him the plan for our lives as He would build it. Sometimes it may be hard for us to let God have His way, but just as the finished product of the master builder is a beautiful and useful building, so the finished product of God's blueprint is a beautiful and useful life fit for the service of the King.

GOD'S BLUEPRINT

God has a blueprint of my life
Up yonder in the sky.
He knows each detail from my birth
To when I'm going to die.
The road is all mapped out for me
So there's no need to fear
When I see sharp curves ahead
And the way is not so clear.

Many times the way is rough
And the hills are very steep.
I feel alone in darkness
When I pass through valleys deep.
I don't understand at times
Why God is leading so
Until I see by faith
A plan God drew long ago.

As I look back upon the years,
I clearly see God's hand
Was leading me along the path
In just the way he planned.
If God can lead in such a way
As He's done in the past,
I'll trust Him for the future
Till I see His face at last.

TESTIMONIES

I thank God that the life that I now live is in and by Jesus Christ. Without Him it would be a failure and a waste of time. But with Him life is joy and blessings daily. Life has meaning and is worthwhile with Him and in Him.

—a Teacher

Too often as a teenager I find myself thinking I can't do much for the Lord until I'm older. Many times when I get this attitude I turn to I Timothy 4:12: "Let no man despise thy youth . . ." I find I must live now for Christ and that Christ can be very real to me, a teenager. Also verse 13 is helpful: "Till I come, give attendance to reading . . ." Although I often find myself neglecting . . . that this is the source of living a true Christian life and gives much spiritual growth. —a Freshman

I was saved when I was eight years old, and it just seemed like I had walked into a new world. The Lord meant so much to me that all through my grade school days I was looking for a new way in serving the Lord. The Lord led me to NC, and I have never regretted it. By being here I have learned how to let the Lord guide and control me. A verse that means a lot to me is Hebrews 13:5b: "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee." To me this promise is sure because He will never leave us nor forsake in whatever we are doing.

—a Junior

Never before has the necessity of getting deep into the Word been impressed upon me so mightily. We seem to have forgotten that Christ wants to become a reality in every area of our lives. And how do we obtain this moment-by-moment walk with Him? II Peter 1:2 says: "Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of . . . Jesus our Lord." If we will but learn to know Christ personally, He has promised to give us His peace and joy.

—a Junior

"I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me." Galatians 2:20

How precious it is to be able to claim by faith that Christ lives in me. If only I could fully realize that Christ is not just my helper or strength but I am "one with Christ." Everything that Christ is and has is now mine because He is in me. I need to pray that Christ will make Himself more real to me.

—a Senior

I was saved in 1965, but it wasn't until this year's opening series of meetings that the Lord changed me by removing some bad habits and giving some good ones.

I joined Gospel Team, and I found joy. I learned how to witness to people about Christ.

I have enjoyed this year at NC. It has helped me spiritually. My favorite verse is I Corinthians 10:13.

—a Sophomore

This past year at NC I've had a lot of ups and downs and will continue to have them the rest of my life, but what I want to say is how we go to, and how do we solve them? There are the very questions I've asked myself and the only answer is a true relationship to God and trusting in Him for daily needs. A verse God has given me is Colossians 2:3: "In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." It has a lot of meaning!

—a Sophomore

In Philippians 4:19 God has promised to supply all my need according his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Many times I have relied upon His promise in this verse and He never fails me.

—a Teacher

The past three years at NC have meant a lot to me in my spiritual life. I have learned many things and have had many experiences which I know I wouldn't have blessed with at a public school. I thank the Lord for the privilege of attending NC. One verse I have learned to apply to my life is found in Matthew 6:33: "But seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." I want to thank the Lord for

—a Junior

I want to thank the Lord for the privilege of attending NC. It has taught me to trust me in the Lord for all my needs, which He has provided.

Many times I have been troubled about the many tasks which have become my responsibility, but each time the Lord has shown me precious words of assurance that only God gives real and perfect peace. In John 14:17 I read, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

—a Junior

I was saved when I was very young, and I really thank the Lord that I was. It is really a great help to be able to rely on God for everything—for my problems and other things as well. When I think of how much God has helped me and meant to me since I became a Christian, I see why non-Christians are in such a state of confusion.

One verse that has really meant a lot to me is I Corinthians 10:13. Whenever I am tempted I think of this verse and then ask God to help not to give in to the temptation.

—a Freshman

Looking back over the school year, I now can see that God definitely had a purpose in mind when He led me here to NC. Because this was my senior year, I wanted to finish high school where I had spent my first three years, but God led in a different way. Now I see that God had something better for me spiritually than I otherwise would have gotten. Through private devotions, chapels, and Christian friends to talk with about the things of God, the Lord has really blessed me in my spiritual life. One of the greatest blessings of this school year has been to learn that Christianity is not just something we put on when it is convenient, on Sundays, or when we serve God on choir trips or on Gospel Team assignments, but that Christianity can be applied to every area of our lives. Every minute of every day, in everything we do, Christianity is relevant. A verse which has become meaningful to me is Ephesians 4:15. Part of the verse reads that we "may grow up into Him in all things." This verse doesn't just tell us that we should grow in Christ because of our devotions or because we attend church, but every circumstance in every day is to cause us to grow in Him. It was wonderful to see this and to know every event in each day is ordered by God for my benefit.

—a Senior

During the past few months Christ has come to mean more to me through my daily devotions, prayer, Scripture memorization and constant Christian influence. In the past Christ has just been Someone I have gone to when I needed help. He is my helper, I must read His Word day by day to grow spiritually. He must become a reality in my life, and others. He must be able to see Christ in my life, "If we live in the spirit, let us also walk in the spirit." Galatians 6:25.

I am very thankful that I came to Nebraska Christian High School because it was here that I accepted Christ as my Saviour. I have learned more about spiritual things and living for Christ in the past year than I have in the other years of my life.

I'm thankful for the Christian teachers and friends that I have become acquainted with this year. I only wish more people had the opportunity of coming to NC.

The result of this organization is right before your eyes. Many Monday nights have been spent by this group laying out pictures, planning, writing, and typing copy, and cropping pictures — all for your benefit in getting to know the students of NCHS.

The school choir performs at important occasions on campus throughout the year and at the district music contest in April. The highlight of this group's work each year is the presentation of a "choir program" in various churches and auditoriums throughout the state during the spring semester. This program includes a variety of sacred music, student testimonies, and a Scriptural challenge involving songs, poems, and narration. Emphasis is placed on musical quality, but more important than that is the emphasis on serving the Lord through a life that is clean and yielded to Him.

CHOIR TOURS

NC has scheduled choir programs in churches across the state the past two years. The choir travels by chartered bus during which time the young people have a chance to sleep, sing, and play games. Each choir program is preceded by prayer. This requires both time and effort on the part of the choir, but they feel that it is worthwhile.

MUSIC LESSONS

Trelani Pibel, Miss Wiebe

Mike Schubert, Mr. Conover

Reg Ewert, Lois LeBar, Mr. Sawyer

Barbara Harder, Cheri Aspegren

NC has an active music program. In addition to student participation in large and small ensembles, about fifty students are involved in private lessons. Although some of these are preparing for musical ministries, the basic purpose is to develop techniques for more effective service in each area. Emphasis is placed on choosing music with a Scriptural message and interpreting that message from the heart of the musician to the hearts of the listeners.

Coaches

Ruben Ruybalid — Dean Stortz

The job of a coach requires action. The coaches instruct the team, teaching techniques and co-operation. The victory or defeat of a team is charged often times to the coaches.

A coach's job may include more than competitive sports. In addition to coaching, Mr. Ruybalid teaches physical education classes, a vital part of the daily school curriculm.

Most important to our coaches is the spiritual life of each student representing NC. If one is to play on the team, he must display Christ-like attitudes and sportsmanship.

Student Managers

Ray Rohn — Russ Goemaat

The job of the student managers ranges from ironing suits to taping ankles. The managers also must keep equipment in working condition, and supplies on hand. They are most active during the basketball season.

"B" TEAM

VOLLEYBALL

N. C. Spirit

A vital part of our basketball fervor is the NC spirit which generally is compressed in the spirit can but is released when the cover is lifted. This spirit was evident at the cheerleader election held November 15, 1967, and it is present at pep rallies with cheers and skits.

Tabor Tournament

Tabor or bust! The annual academy invitational basketball tournament at Tabor College, Hillsboro, Kansas, was held February 8-10. Our team won the first game against Central Christian High School but lost to Corn Bible Academy and Oklahoma Bible Academy Friday and Saturday nights, respectively. In addition to playing basketball, the team, cheerleaders and other students who attended enjoyed the fellowship and informal sessions.

After a fellowship dinner on Corporation Day, November 21, 1967, the students and corporation members heard the annual reports of the school's business. An address was also brought by Donald Tschetter, Dean of Education, Grace Bible Institute. During the intermission Miss Zook, the Home Economics teacher, had refreshments and displays for the women while the men found refreshments in the dining hall. After the intermission a program including the school band and choir was presented. In closing, the boy's dorm was dedicated and the cornerstone was laid.

The '67-'68 presidential campaign aroused much hustle and bustle. Posters, emblems, and skits were the weapons used to wage a vigorous battle between Andy's Army and Gary's Crusaders. The campaign was climaxed by a speech by each of the candidates and his manager.

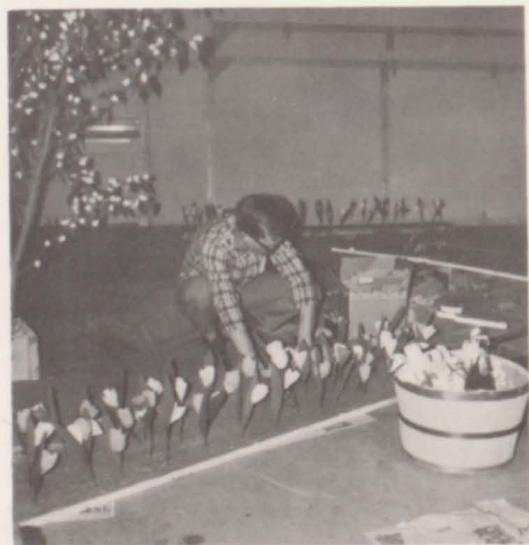

On November 10 the campaign was brought to a close with the election at noon. Suspense prevailed until the time of the assembly when Mr. Ediger announced Steve Anderson as the new student body president of the 1967-1968 school year.

Junior-Senior Banquet

"Garden of My Heart" was the theme of the banquet given by the juniors in honor of the seniors. The banquet was held April 9, 1968 at the Merrick County 4-H Building, which was decorated like a garden with a brook, bridge, trees, flowers, and animals. The program following the meal consisted of a piano duet by Marsha Safford and Jerry McClenahan, and the banquet message by Rev. William Renstrom of Denver. The Rev. Renstrom also sang three solos.

Dress-up Dinners

Monthly dress-up dinners are held as a social outlet for students and staff. After dinner in the dining hall, the NC family moves into the auditorium for the entertainment. This year we have been entertained by Christian athletes, a top spinner, a Christian magician, films and a play.

A Visit To East Hall

Welcome to East Hall, NC's boy's dorm. You can come on in if you're quiet. It's only 6:30 in the morning, and most of the boys are still sleeping. Right now the hall is deserted, but the sound of the "get up" bell tells us that it won't be quiet much longer.

Soon we see half-awake, sleep-eyed boys dragging their feet toward the shower room. Soon the dorm is alive with the sound of water rushing against the shower floor. By now almost everyone is up.

Soon another bell rings and after much running and door slamming, the dorm is suddenly quiet. This is the time set aside for the boys to have their morning devotions. The quietness is broken, however, as forty hungry boys stampede to the dining hall for breakfast. At last the dorm is quiet. Whoops! Some late sleeper rushes past with rumpled hair and one shoe on. Hope he makes it to breakfast.

After breakfast, the dorm is a "beehive" of activity as the boys get brooms from the utility room to clean their rooms. They have to make it as nice and clean as they can because while they're at school the house-cleaning expert of the dorm, "Ma" Smith, will check the rooms for unswept floors, dusty furniture, and rumpled beds. Those not passing the room check are favored with a small slip of paper telling them just what is wrong with their cleaning.

The dorm is very still during school hours, and the Smiths welcome this quietness heartily. At noon, however, the dorm is invaded as the boys come to brush their teeth and just relax before returning to their school work.

After school, the dorm isn't so noisy as many boys are either out for track or doing their jobs.

Between supper and study hall, as you can well imagine, is the most activity. The plinking of the ping-pong ball can be heard coming from the recreation room. In the other rooms, friends gather to listen to a record, play a game of chess, or just to talk about something "important." Hey, look out! You almost ran into that kid carrying a pile of laundry. Looks like he'll be doing some washing.

After study hall, much of this activity is resumed. Some boys are making their way to Mr. Smith's apartment to ask for change for the pop machine or for a late light to study.

Things have quieted down once again for evening devotions. Maybe we had better leave. First, let's have a bottle of pop in the rec. room. The ringing bell indicates that devotions are over, and the boys are making a last visit to the wash room with toothbrushes and wash rags in hand.

Things have settled down and all the lights are going off. Now everyone is in bed. Maybe we'd better go. Hope you have enjoyed this visit to East Hall on a typical school day.

Conquest In Evening Study Hall

The first bell rings just as I walk in the door, so I hurry up to my locker. After a moment's hesitation I decide on the books I'll need to study. In my assigned seat I pause to catch my breath before tackling my work.

A cool breeze drifts in through an open window. It feels good after a warm and busy day. Mentally I began to review the day's activities, but the 7:30 bell brings me back to the present. With a sigh I open my book and try to concentrate. Somewhere downstairs a cornet player starts his warm-up exercises, and across the hall someone begins to sing a gospel song. As I listen a while, my attention is drawn back to my book by a fly crawling across the page. Guiltily I look around to see if any others are having the same trouble keeping their minds on their studies. But they all seem to be busy, so with renewed determination I attack my homework. Just as I finish the last problem, I hear, "You are dismissed."

I glance at the clock; it shows 9:00. I get up, slowly collect my books, and put them in my locker. As I step out of the door on my way back to the dorm, I take a deep breath of fresh air, and a great feeling comes over me with the realization that I got all my homework done tonight!

"Rowse Hydraulic Rakes"

MADE IN SIZES 24 FT. TO 42 FT.

THIS RAKE IS VERY FLEXIBLE AND MERELY FLOATS OVER THE GROUND, AS THE RAKE IS CARRIED BY 5 WHEELS WHICH ARE SO ARRANGED THAT UNEVEN GROUND HAS LITTLE EFFECT ON THE RAKE. THIS ALSO PROTECTS THE RAKE TEETH FROM BREAKAGE.

ANOTHER FEATURE THAT PROTECTS THE TEETH IS SPRINGS ON THE HOLD-DOWN, WHICH ABSORB MUCH OF THE SHOCK AND STRAIN ON THE TEETH.

ONE DOUBLE-ACTING HYDRAULIC CYLINDER EASILY OPERATES THE RAKE.

THE RAKE THAT HAS MADE ALL OTHER RAKES OBSOLETE, AND HAS FOUND FAVOR WITH FARMERS AND RANCHERS ALIKE.

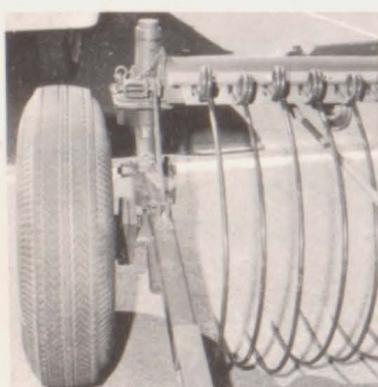

Rake, in operating position

TRANSPORTATION — NO PROBLEM

It takes only seconds to change this rake from operating position to transport position. To transport the rake, the tractor is disengaged from the main tongue, which is then lifted to an upwardly position. The tractor is then engaged to a short tongue which is assembled to one of the end wheels. This wheel is locked in position by means of a pin when the rake is in operating position. (See picture at left.) The opposite end wheel locks in two positions, one for raking, the other for transportation. The center wheels are caster wheels, and automatically assume the position the rake is being pulled. The rake is only about 8 ft. wide when being transported, and can be pulled by car or pickup at least 40 miles per hour.

Simple Mechanism changes to transportation position.

Ready to be moved anywhere.

Columbia Bible College was founded in 1923 for the purpose of training young people for life and service to "work the works of God" through a practical working faith in Jesus Christ. This is expressed in CBS's motto "To know Him and to make Him known." Interdenominational in policies and spirit, the Bible College emphasizes the great essentials of the Christian faith which are held in common by all evangelical denominations.

Central in the Bible College curriculum is the study of the Word of God. Around the core curriculum of Bible and Bible related courses are grouped the liberal arts courses essential to a well-rounded education. Columbia Bible College grants the following degrees:

Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Education
Bachelor of Biblical Education
Master of Arts in Biblical Education
Bachelor of Divinity

In order that the student may learn God's ways of making Christ known to others, supervised experiences are given in various forms of Christian service. These afford opportunity to see the Lord work through the student himself in personal work, in open air evangelism, in preaching and Bible teaching, and in ministries in music.

Over a thousand graduates or former students of Columbia Bible College have entered foreign mission service. For several years more than one-half of the graduating class have prepared to go to the mission field.

The Evangelical Free Church of Central City is grateful for the Nebraska Christian High School. We value the good fellowship enjoyed and the contribution the school is making in the ministry of this church.
